DOG TRACK SOCIAL

We partied, ate, drank, told jokes, lost some and won some. But most of all the 13 SBMC members who braved the rain had more fun than good people should. They also discovered that no one really needs a passport to cross the Buckman.

The 7th race was named after the Southside Business Men's Club. The class on how to bet was informative and the bartender knew how to make some really good drinks which got much better as the evening went on. The buffet table consisted of 'all you can eat' shrimp, an unlimited amount of spring rolls, hot wings, fruit, cheese and veggie platters, and lasted throughout the evening.

Pictures will be on display at this Wednesday's luncheon. See you all at the next Evening at the Dog Track.

A special thanks to all you members who supported this event and especially to those who attended.

Warmest regards,

Frank Wallmeyer and Barbara Buzby, Co-Chairs
